ATTORNEYS AND COUNSELORS

"I take great pride in keeping my clients' interest the focus of my practice. The attorney-client relationship is based on a special trust. I facilitate that trust by providing clients candid legal and practical advice. Depending on the circumstances, trial is not always the best practical advice."

Peter Gojcaj

Mr. Gojcaj has extensive trial experience, including jury trials, bench trials, and arbitration's. He concentrates his practice in the areas of construction accident litigation, defense of medical malpractice action, commercial litigation, business formation, shareholder/member rights, corporate law, Uniform Commercial Code, creditors' rights, and school law. He also holds the position of Assistant City Attorney for the City of Birmingham.

He won a major victory in a labor arbitration on behalf of a school district client. The union attempted to force the school district to double pay health benefits. The case is captioned, Lincoln Edu Assocs Org v. Lincoln Consolidated Schools, 2010 Mich. App. LEXIS 1986 (Mich App 2010).

Mr. Gojcaj is a member of the State Bar of Michigan and the Oakland County Bar Association. He also donates his time to various causes and committees. Mr. Gojcaj is an officer with the Knights of Columbus where he donates his time and effort helping with charitable enterprises, communities, families, youth, and adolescents. He is a member of the St. Thomas More law society, a public interest group defending religious freedom, families and family values.
