ABOUT ME

Mike has more than 30 years of experience practicing business and commercial law, providing strategic counsel to businesses of all sizes on corporate governance, business formation, succession planning, buy-sell agreements, employment matters, and complex transactions. He also represents the City of Birmingham as part of the firm's municipal legal team. An accomplished litigator, Mike represents businesses and business owners in complex commercial disputes in state and federal courts, helping clients effectively manage risk and achieve practical solutions. Mike speaks frequently at seminars and programs concerning various aspects of business and commercial law and litigation, and he has authored and published numerous articles and materials on those topics.
